From Your Theater Chairs

Dear Families, Friends and Supporters,

Welcome to our production of "Aladdin Jr"! We are so excited to share all of the hard work the students have put into this show and want to extend our gratitude to everyone who made this magical journey possible. From the very first rehearsal to the final applause, the support that we have received from our Golden Elementary community has been show stopping!

First and foremost, we would like to thank our principal, Mrs. McDonald, and our assistant principal, Mrs. Dempsy. Your encouragement and enthusiasm for the arts have truly been the magic carpet that lifted this production to new heights. Thank you for giving our students the opportunity to shine and for fostering a school culture where creativity and expression thrive.

To our PTA, your generosity provided the foundation for this performance. You are the true genies granting wishes behind the scenes, and we are so grateful for your commitment to the students of Golden Elementary.

A special thank-you goes to Harrison Zierer, our incredibly talented director. Your vision and dedication to the students and the show transformed a script into an unforgettable production and experience. You brought out the best in our young performers, inspiring confidence, joy, and a sense of wonder. You helped them all unlock their potential, and the results are dazzling.

To our parent volunteers and musical committee, your countless hours of support backstage, preparing programs, selling concessions, scheduling and assisting after school were invaluable. You ensured the show ran smoothly from behind the scenes, creating an experience that was seamless and unforgettable. Your hard work and dedication remind us that the magic of theater comes from the collaboration of many, and we are deeply grateful for your contributions.

And of course, to the true stars of the show—our incredible children. You transported us to a whole new world with your talent, dedication, and energy. From the joyous choruses of "Friend Like Me" to the heartfelt strains of "A Whole New World," you poured your hearts into every note and every step. You are the reason for this journey, and watching you shine on stage is the greatest reward of all.

This production has been a celebration of creativity, teamwork, and community, and we are so thankful for each and every one of you who played a part in bringing Aladdin Jr. to life. Thank you for sharing this unforgettable experience with us. We hope you leave tonight with memories that will last a lifetime.

With gratitude,

Emily Lindbeck, Alyssa Nebeker, and Kristen Wilson

Golden Production Chairs

A Note from the Director

Welcome to Disney's Aladdin Jr. presented by the Golden Elementary PTA and Center Stage Theater. We are so glad you are here today to see Aladdin, Jasmine, Jafar, and many others come to life on the Curtis Theater's stage.

Disney's version of Aladdin was the most successful film of 1992, earning over $217 million in revenue in the United States and over $504 million worldwide. The film also won many awards and has been performed in Disney theme parks and on the Broadway stage. However, the story of Aladdin has been around for hundreds of years and has received many different interpretations and re-tellings of the story. What you will see today is very similar to the 1992 film and the new hit Broadway show.

What does Aladdin teach us? His story tells us of a boy who receives three magic wishes. His first two wishes are more self-concerning, while his final wish of freedom for his friend shows his compassion and ability to love. He also reminds us that the best person we can be is ourselves. He puts on airs a Prince Ali Ababwa, but it is ultimately himself as simply "Al" that shows Princess Jasmine who he really is and wins her heart. We also learn from the character of Jafar that greed and desire for power can lead to a very un-happy ending.

The mission of Center Stage Theater is to create the opportunity for participatory theater that involves children and adults physically, emotionally, and intellectually in all aspects of theatre arts as well as to present a collaborative performance. We also strive to stimulate, celebrate, and enhance personal development and leadership skills through the shared experience of live theater while celebrating the achievements of our volunteers and staff.

It has been a pleasure working with your children over the past eight weeks and on behalf of my staff and board of directors, I would like to thank every parent and volunteer that helped make this production possible. Your support and enthusiasm throughout this entire process has been such a blessing.

Thank you and enjoy the show!

Harrison Zierer

Artistic Director, Center Stage Theater

A Note from Our Principal

To the extraordinary performers of Golden Elementary,

"There's a whole new world out there, waiting to be discovered." –
Aladdin

As you prepare to light up the stage with the magic of Aladdin Jr, know that you carry with you the collective pride and admiration of our entire school community. Your hard work, creativity, and dedication have brought this production to life, and now the time has come for you to share your talent and passion with the world.

To our families, crew members, volunteers, Golden Productions Musical Crew, and teachers who have supported this journey—thank you! Your contributions, time, and effort have made this incredible production possible.

To our students, every note you sing, every move you make, and every line you speak is a reflection of the heart and soul you've poured into this performance. Remember, it's not just about the costumes and sets but the joy, laughter, and wonder you bring to your audience.

Embrace this moment, support one another, and let the magic of storytelling and the arts guide you through every scene. Tonight, you are not just performers—you are dream-makers, transporting us to a whole new world filled with adventure and inspiration.

Break a leg, Golden Elementary's Aladdin Jr cast and crew! We are so proud of you and cannot wait to see you shine.

With admiration and excitement,

Mrs. McDonald

A Note from Our Asst. Principal

Congratulations Golden Eagle Performers!

Your dedication, hard work, and enthusiasm have truly shone through every rehearsal, every line, and every song. You have poured your hearts into this production, and your creativity and courage to step into the spotlight inspire us all. Remember, the lessons of Aladdin—believing in yourself and the power of teamwork—are not just for the stage but for life.

A very special thank you to the play chairs and volunteers! Your dedication to nurturing creativity and fostering confidence in our students is extraordinary. This play is a testament to what we can achieve when we work together to create something special for our Golden community.

The friendships formed and the memories created will last a lifetime. Here's to dreaming big, reaching for the stars, and finding magic in every moment.

With heartfelt appreciation,

Mrs. Dempsey
